Dear Friends,

With this issue, I wish to introduce you to the FOLBC Executive Committee – a working, all-volunteer group. To the right is a list of the officers. And on the back of this newsletter, page eight, can be found the group photograph.

As mentioned, Chris is our newsletter editor. This is only a part of her duties. She also manages all donation lists and prints regularly a list of those individuals that have donated $25 or more, plus all those that have donated any labor. And she prints bookplates to be inserted in every honor book.

Janet McMurrin is our webmaster. She keeps www.folbc.org updated and manages all email activity.

Debbie Goens is our PR guru. If you hear or see an FOLBC announcement about book sales or FOLBC programs on local public media, it is because of Debbie.

Alice Smith sees that appreciation messages are sent to those who have joined any work party and maintains addresses of all members and volunteers.

Marjorie Malone is charged with publicity of Home Bound Delivery and the delivery itself. Contact her or the library if you or someone you know is homebound and would like library books to read.

Beth Neel maintains day school reading materials. She sees that books are in good repair and selects appropriate books from donations to add to the FOLBC day school collection.

The book sale VP's are Amanda Baker, Malinda Brown, Millie Mondahl and Kathryn Crunkleton. They handle logistics and gather the personnel to implement the respective book sales. This is more difficult than the two sentences indicate.

Mary Wright is in charge of the Book Sleuths that examine and price donated books not added to the library collection. Many on the FOLBC Executive Committee are also members of Book Sleuths.

Jackie Hern, Shirley Copeland, George Cline, and Kathryn Crunkleton have titles that make their duties self explanatory.

Contact us, join us, and serve your community.

George Cline

Harrison Volunteer Fair

Even though the weather was bitter cold, the first Volunteer Fair, held on March 1st and 2nd, and sponsored by the Harrison Regional Chamber of Commerce 2012-2013 Adult Leadership Class, was a huge success. There were 35 booths representing many nonprofit groups who need volunteers to continue their support of various organizations and charities. Our Friends of the Library (FOL) booth was visited by many people with approximately 50 volunteer flyers handed out. Millie Mondahl, Debbie Goens, and George Cline manned the booth and discussed FOL, our mission and goals with most of the visitors. Missy Beavers, our new student volunteer, also helped man the booth on Saturday. We look forward to her being able to assist us in future events. The Chamber of Commerce has reported the Volunteer Fair will be an annual event sponsored by North Arkansas College and the Chamber.

Buffalo National River Partners Presents

New Series at Boone County Library: "Getting to Know Your National Parks,"

Tuesday, April 23, 2013 5:30 pm

We've all heard of the Grand Canyon, Yellowstone and Glacier National Parks, and some of us have had the opportunity to visit these wonderful national treasures. Our Buffalo National River is a lesser known park within the National Park Service; and with more than 400 parks and monuments within the system, many are as less well known as the Buffalo. Such is the case with Grand Portage National Monument in Minnesota. Caven Clark, Chief of Resources and Education, Buffalo National River, will spotlight Grand Portage National Monument in Minnesota on April 23 at 5:30 pm at the Boone County Library. During the days of fur trading in the northeast, trappers could use this footpath at Lake Superior to reach the Arctic, the Atlantic, the Pacific and the Gulf of Mexico with no portage longer than one day. Don't miss this interesting presentation.

Song on May Morning

*Now the bright morning-star, Day's harbinger,
Comes dancing from the East, and leads with her
The flowery May, who from her green lap throws
The yellow cowslip, and the pale primrose.*

*Hail bounteous May, that dost inspire
Mirth and youth, and warm desire!
Woods and groves are of thy dressing;
Hill and dale doth boast thy blessing.*

*Thus we salute thee with our early song,
And welcome thee and wish thee long.*
