The Old West Time-Life Books 1980

The story of the American frontier in a complete, twenty-six volume, leather-bound set. This is a pristine set with gorgeous illustrations.

Dream Webs By Suzanne McNeil

How to make Dream Catchers. Native American myths of the Great Plains speak to us of the spirit Dream Catchers. "Each carefully woven web will catch bad spirit dreams and hold them until the morning sun evaporates them with the dew. Good Spirit dreams find their way through the center spirit hole and float down to bless the sleeping one with trouble-free good dreams."

A Thousand Years Over a Hot Stove by Laura Schenone

A history of American women told through food, recipes and remembrance. Native American women pried nourishment from the wilderness. African American women sold biscuits to buy their children freedom. Immigrant wives cooked old foods in new places. A celebration of women's lives, homes and communities.

Outwitting Critters, by Bill Adler, Jr.

A humane guide for confronting devious critters and winning.
