Attention all you sentimental, nostalgic, rock and roll buffs, not mention latent hippies. You can be transported back to the sixties and seventies. FOL has received a donation of a collection of classic rock and roll cassettes, which will be offered at our Spring sale on April 16, 17 and 18.

Want to be taken to far-away warm places? Westerns? Native Americans? We have books for that. Do you want on-the-edge-of-your-seat suspense? We also have books for that. Want to laugh? Want to cry? Want to improve your physical, emotional or spiritual health? We have books for all that. In fact, we have books for most everyone, most interests and all ages, including the children, at quite reasonable prices. We have thousands of books.

Become a member and get to come to the early preview and sale on Thursday morning. All of our profits go for programs of the library and FOL, such as daycare reading, homebound delivery, summer reading program and honor books. Supporting our sales by donating, buying and volunteering makes all this possible. See you there!

Spring Book Sale Schedule .....6

Dear Friends,

Three topics are on the agenda. Those members of Friends of the Library, Boone County (FOLBC) that wish to be informed digitally of our activities did not receive notice of the availability of the last issue of the Bookplate. The company that hosts our digital mailing activities lost our mailing list and declined to acknowledge that they had ever provided this service. Needless to say, we were unable to notify our digital members of the availability of the newsletter at FOLBC.org. It is still available along with some prior issues at this site, FOLBC.org. We are working on recovery and selecting a different host. Sometimes it doesn't pay to be too frugal in selection of a service.

The last issue contained a review of 2014 FOLBC activities including our financial statement. This issue has a membership form included and is being sent to all members and potential members. USPS is the service provider, being tried and true. If you need to become a new member, please complete the membership form and return to the Boone County Library or use USPS and mail to: FOLBC, 221W. Stephenson, Harrison, AR 72601. FOL relies on our members for both manual labor and funding to help with our many activities. An activity requiring a considerable number of hands is nigh - our Spring Book Sale is April 16, 17, and 18. We will need your help.

Everyone of our officers will be helping in one way or another. They are pictured elsewhere in this newsletter. I wish to review with you their duties. I will do so by name and a short description of their major duties.

- Janet McMurrin - website design and maintain;
- Marjorie Malone - outreach, delivery of books to homebound individuals;
- Shirley Copeland - secretarial responsibility;
- Jackie Hern - treasurer;
- Barbara Martin - newsletter editor;
- Kathryn Crunkleton - selects books and manages sales for Silent Auction and Trolley near front desk;
- Malinda Brown - wheedles folks into helping with Spring and Fall Book Sales;
- Beth Neel - outreach, maintains book collection for delivery to all County ABC and Headstart preschools;
- Alice Smith - maintains FOLBC membership and courtesy mailing list;
- Mary Wright - head of Book Sleuths who examine all donated books and sort by value;
- Sally Robinson - publicity, "Book Ends" article the last weekend of every month in the Harrison Daily Times;
- Amanda Baker - Children's Book Sale, June 6th this year;
- Millie Mondahl - Holiday Book Sale, December 5th this year;
- George Cline - performs only executive duties, like hauling books on a dolly.

Good Books, Good Times!

“Good books. Good times.

Good stories. Good rhymes.

Good beginnings. Good ends.

Good people. Good friends.”

(excerpt from “Good Books, Good Times!” by Lee Bennett Hopkins)

Young Adults/Children's Book Sale

Saturday, June 6

9:00 - 1:00

Lee Bennett Hopkins shares the sentiments of Friends of the Library as we plan for the Young Adult/Children's Book Sale on Saturday, June 6 at Boone County Library. We want young people to think of books as their friends, and time spent reading as good times.

Therefore, would you help make this possible by contributing gently used children's books (hard and soft cover, fact, fiction, poetry, etc.) to the library? These books will be made available to young people (soft cover for $.20 / hard cover for $.50). Books will be half price if the shopper has a library card. Best of all, young people are invited to shop and choose their own books.
