Holiday Book Sale
Saturday, December 3
9 am to 2 pm

It's time to think about stocking up on winter reading materials, and the Friends of the Library Holiday Sale is the place to do that. You'll find a wide assortment of gift-quality books at bargain prices. This year marks the 150th anniversary of the start of the Civil War, so we are featuring several Civil War books, as well as books on WWI, WWII, and the Korean and Viet Nam Wars. There are many books for children of all ages, including classic children's stories. Cookbooks, garden and landscaping, inspirational books, plus a large selection of current fiction will be available.

Look for a sample of the sale books in the display cases at the library Thanksgiving week and check out page three of this newsletter for a preview of books that will be offered at the sale. Bring a friend with you when you shop. And don't forget to sign up for the Christmas basket drawing. All proceeds are used to support our library.

Friends of the Library Annual Meeting
Thursday, November 17, 5:30

Friends of the Library will hold their 2011 annual meeting on Thursday, November 17, and the public is invited. The meeting will take place at 5:30 pm in the meeting room on the upper floor of the Boone County Library. It should last no longer than forty-five minutes, probably less. Highlights of Friends' activities for the past year will be presented along with the financial statement. Election of the officers for 2012 will be held and comments will be invited.
