

Holiday Sale 2011

Friends of the Library thanks the twenty-one volunteers who gave so generously of their time to set up and staff the Holiday Book Sale, and the folks who came and shopped at the sale. We also thank the local newspaper, radio and television stations, merchants and the Boone County Library for promoting the sale.

The sale realized $931.01, including $37.51 for memberships and donations. All proceeds will be used to benefit the library.

Donita DeVito's name was drawn for the basket of books.

We hope that the books purchased at the sale provide many hours of winter reading pleasure. The next book sale will be April 4th thru April 6th.

The following volunteers set up and staffed the Holiday Book Sale.

2012 Book Sale Schedule

The dates are set. Mark your calendars. The FOL book sale schedule for 2012 is now official.

Spring Book Sale - April 12-14 - Coincides with National Library Week
Children's Book Sale - June 2
Fall Book Sale - October 4-6
Holiday Book Sale - December 1

The Spring Book Sale includes a large variety of fiction and nonfiction. There will be a bargain room and an area with individually priced books. The sale will be held during National Library Week and is a good time to renew your membership with FOL if you have not already done so.

The Children's Book Sale consists mainly of books which are priced appropriately for our youngest shoppers. FOL hopes to get books in the hands of children so that they will continue reading throughout the summer and not lose those valuable reading skills. Lots of parents and grandparents like to shop at this sale too.

The Fall Book Sale is another three day sale with both bargain and individually priced books including both fiction and nonfiction. This is a good time to stock up on reading material for those long cold winter nights ahead.

The Holiday Book Sale consists of books that are in pristine condition suitable for gift giving. This is a good sale for Christmas shoppers to find some great buys.

Of course, none of these sales could take place without the book donations from you, the public. Proceeds from these sales are used to support library resources and programs. Your donations are vital to the success of this endeavor. FOL and the Boone County Library appreciate you. See you at the next sale!
