Holiday Sale Is December 8

By Millie Mondahl, V. P. Holiday Sale

Once again Friends of the Library volunteers have gathered hundreds of crisp, clean books to sell at the Holiday Book Sale on December 8th, from 9 to 2. There is even more variety this year including mysteries, how-to, gardening, war/military, fiction, inspirational, and of course Christmas themes. There is a large selection of children's books. The books are mostly priced at two dollars each, a few are priced slightly higher, and all are suitable for gift-giving.

Here are some examples of books priced at $2 each:

- Wit, Wisdom, and Practical Advice* (Benjamin Franklin) by the editors of The Old farmers Almanac
- The Quilters Daughter* by Wanda Brunstetter
- Several titles of The No. 1 Ladies Detective Agency by Alexander McCall Smith
- Homeport* by Nora Roberts
- Irish Hearts* (2007) by Nora Roberts
- Shabby Chic* by Rachel Ashwell
- Battle Cry of Freedom-The Civil War Era* by James McPherson
- Multiple copies of Clive Cussler novels
- Irish Folk and Fairy Tales* by Michael Scott
- License to Grill* by Chris Schlesinger and John Willoughby

In addition, there will be a paperback 9 volume collection of Dorothy Saylor books, many children's books, most priced at $1, and two collectible Bobbsey Twins for $5. Christmas Letters and Where Angels Go by Debbie Macomber are priced at $3 each.

We hope that everyone will see something in the list that they want to own. If not, there will be many more books from which to choose on sale day. Bring a friend and do some Christmas shopping on December 8. As always, the proceeds will be used to benefit the library.
