Friends of the Library Children's Book Sale

By Amanda Baker

Friends of the Library wants to put as many books as possible into the hands of children during the annual Children's Book Sale Saturday, June 7th, at the Boone County Library from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Hundreds of gently used and well loved children's books will be priced for young shoppers at 50 cents for hardcover books and 20 cents for soft cover books. Children with library cards and children under 6 years of age whose parents present a library card will be charged half price. Library cards can be obtained, with a parent's signature, on the day of the sale or any other day that the library is in operation.

It's summertime, time for lazy days in the shade, summer vacations and road trips. Books can ward off boredom on long trips. Come join us for a fun day at the Children's Book Sale on June 7th and find that one or more special book.

If your children have outgrown their books and wish to donate them to the library for this sale, they would be very welcome. You may drop them off at the library's front desk.

Proceeds from the Children's Book Sale are used to enhance services provided by the Boone County Library.

Children's Prize Basket Drawing

A free gift basket filled with children's books and other surprises will be given away by Friends of the Library during a special drawing held at noon on Saturday, June 7, during the children's book sale. Children are encouraged to visit the children's department at the library sometime during the week before the drawing and enter their names to

For the kid in all of us:

"I think a good novel would be where a bunch of men on a ship are looking for a whale. They look and look, but you know what? They never find him. And you know why they never find him? It doesn't say. The book leaves it up to you, the reader, to decide. Then, at the very end, there's a page you can lick and it tastes like Kool-Aid."
