VERY OLD, VERY AMUSING, VERY ENGLISH

Select a truly memorable and collectible volume from Punch and the London Charivari series published in the 1840's. These books are in good condition considering their age. Full of humorous cartoons, poetry and articles reflecting the social and cultural events of that period in England, they are entertaining and fun to read. One or more of these volumes priced at $20.00 each would make a unique Christmas gift for a favorite book lover or an interesting addition to your personal library. Shop at the Holiday Book Sale to find that special gift.

EXTRA!!! EXTRA !!!

UNUSUAL DONATION OF USEFUL HOME ITEMS! Recently the Friends of the Library received a donation of items for the home/office which will be available at the upcoming Holiday Sale on Saturday, December 6..

We will have paper shredders manufactured by Shredmaster in several sizes. The smallest is the "Confidential" which is handy for destroying cancelled checks and other small items. Also available are the 40S and 60S shredders which can be adjusted to fit on top of a standard waste basket. A deluxe 80S shredder, which includes the waste basket, will also be offered.

Another handy gadget being offered is the Bates electric three-hole punch. A stapler is also a feature of this machine, but indications are that it is not operable. And if you need to laminate small business cards or pictures, we have just the right thing.

ALL ARE PRICED TO SELL!
