

Coming Events @ Boone County Library

submitted by Sandra Williams

March Events

- Tuesday, March 31 is musical trivia game night, to be held upstairs. For more information, ask our circulation staff.

April Events

The new Baby Bookworms toddler program is scheduled to start up this month. Final room design changes are in process and notices will be sent out when the program gets going. Our thanks to all the mothers who have called and shown interest in this program. Doing these songs and finger plays together will be beneficial for moms and baby too! (Due to limited space, please remember to register).

- Thursday, April 2 we will use our Teen Time to plant flowers in our flower pots out at the front doors.
- Friday, April 10 there will be prize eggs hidden around the children's area throughout the day. The prizes in the eggs will be stickers and small candies.
- Monday, April 13 marks the start of National Library Week; the theme this year is Worlds Connect @ Your Library. We will be giving out balloons on Monday.
- Tuesday, April 14 is dress up day, as Worlds Connect, children's staff will be dressed as characters from another world, (or a book). For story time there will be a scrap booking craft for the kids. The story is When I was Little.
- Wednesday, April 15 there will be face painting and balloons for the little ones.
- Thursday, April 16 the children will be making faux stained glass, while the teen special project will be henna tattoos. Wii game night is also at this time.
- Friday, April 17 we will finish off our National Library Week celebrations with refreshments. Ice cold orange drink and hot popcorn will be in the lobby. These will be available to our patrons as they leave the library.
- Thursday, April 23 the Canine Reading Buddies (service dogs) will be here to listen to the kids read aloud.

May Events

Throughout the month of May local schools will be coming in for tours of the library along with workshops in library manners and use of the card catalog.

- The week of May 10 we will celebrate our local heritage with special groups and demonstrations.
- May 15 the kids from Forest Heights will come for a tour. There will be about 80 children.
- Saturday, May 30 children's book illustrator Rich Davis will be holding two workshops to show us how he "does his thing". Our Friends of the Library has generously sponsored this event as it is in keeping with the summer reading program's Be Creative @ Your Library theme. The young artist patrons will be excited to see how this is done and we'd like to thank the F.O.L. for this wonderful experience for the kids. Workshop times will be at 10:00 AM for little ones, and 11:00 AM for the older kids.

June Events

- Our 2009 summer reading program officially starts June 15 and runs through late July. The theme this year is Be Creative @ Your Library. There will be arts and crafts, music, drama with puppet shows, tie dying, a sidewalk chalk art show, musical guests, guest readers, a still life painting workshop and a decorative ceiling hanging to be designed and crafted with the help of our summer reading program attendees.

Suffice it to say... you're going to have fun here at BCL this summer! We look forward to seeing you!

Happy Days! From BCL Staff

April Displays

- April 16 - 30 in the big display case there will be a huge collection of rabbits and fiction.
- April 19 - 26 there will be a display in the wooden bookcase of Holocaust books.
- April 20 the mezzanine will feature the Harrison High School Photography Club. Some great photography by local students will be on display through the end of April.
- March 30 - April 15 the FOL book sale items will be on display. Be sure to check out these books, there are some great classics as well as new items.

May Display Mezzanine - Cavin Clark will share some works of art from the local Tyler Bend Nature Center.
