

Holiday Book Sale Results

Hundreds of books were sold to shoppers at the FOL Holiday book sale. This year's selection of like-new copies of current fiction, children's books, non-fiction and classic literature were real bargains. Many were purchased as Christmas gifts.

Of special interest to the shoppers were the Punch publications dated in the 1840s and the 1895 volumes of Charles Dickens' works.

Sandy Williams prepared a lovely Christmas basket that the shoppers signed up for at the sale. Micah Green's name was drawn as the winner.

Twenty volunteers, listed below, donated 59 hours of their time to set up and run the sale. We thank them and also the people who generously donated the books. We thank the merchants, businesses, radio and television stations for the advertising they provided for the sale.

The proceeds of the sale, $1342.00, will be used to benefit the Boone County Library.
