Fall Book Sale September 30, October 1 and 2

By the Book Sleuths

Leaves are turning, pumpkins are on the vine, and a harvest of books awaits you at the Fall Book Sale. Thanks to all who have donated the hundreds of books. Those not needed by the library to add to the permanent collection were sorted, evaluated and priced by the Book Sleuths. In addition to titles in history, nature, cookbooks, inspiration and the arts, there will be an unusually nice selection of fiction priced from $2-$6 in the atrium.

Please see pages three and four for a list of the books that will be on display before the sale and for some special book sale offerings. Below are a few of the special titles:

Short Line Railroads of Arkansas, Clifton E Hull (including the Missouri & N Arkansas)

The Bird House Book, Woods & Schoonmaker

Trail of the Wild West, Paul Robert Walker

Restorer's Model A Shop Manual, and other Model A volumes

Time Life Series 23 volumes of the Age of Flight

101 Crazy Quilt Blocks, Linda Causee

The Mark of the Scots, Duncan A. Bruce

Volunteers are needed to help set up on Wednesday and then to assist buyers on sale days. We will be calling...or feel free to call George Cline at 741-7121 if you would be available.

All proceeds from the sale are to benefit the Boone County Library.

Thursday	9 am to 1 pm:	Members preview and sale.
	1 pm to 7 pm:	Open to all
Friday	9 am to 5 pm:	Open to all
Saturday	9 am to 3 pm:	Bargain Day with individually priced books in the atrium for one-half the marked price and all books in the bargain room for $3.00 a bag

SIGN UP FOR A PRIZE AT THE FALL BOOK SALE

At the close of the sale on Saturday afternoon there will be a drawing for a "kitchen" basket with some selected recipe booklets, a dish towel, and a hand knitted dish cloth. The winner will also be able to enjoy some hot beverages in a pretty mug as the weather cools outside. Patrons will be able to sign up during the three days of the sale.

The winner will be notified by phone after the sale.
