

Perry Gaither

Best of Boys' Life
by Boy Scouts of America

2011 marks the 100th anniversary of Boys' Life magazine, the periodical of the Boy Scouts of America. This retrospective of articles, columns, fiction, cartoons and jokes; as well as invaluable information specifically for Scouts, includes work by Isaac Asimov, John Glenn, Willie Mayes and Theodore Roosevelt. Besides the cartoons, my favorite pieces in this nostalgic volume are "The Man" by Ray Bradbury, "Russian Youth" by Harrison Salisbury and "The Battle of Midway" by Charles Mercer.

Kyna Marshall

Loom Knitting Socks: A Beginner's Guide to Knitting Socks on a Loom with Over 50 Fun Projects (No-Needle Knits)
by Isela Phelps

I chose this book because I really enjoyed the teen event we did where we loom knitted comfort caps for the children at the Arkansas Children's Hospital, and I believe this book would be a wonderful addition to the library.

Richard Evans

The Emperor's New Drug: Exploding the Antidepressant Myth
by Irving Kirsch

A number of respected researchers are finding that the studies provided by the pharmaceutical companies are grossly compromised and that most or all of the most commonly prescribed and profitable antidepressant/antipsychotic drugs are useless and many are tragically harmful.

Roland Booher (photo unavailable)

The Complete Guide to Growing Healing and Medicinal Herbs: A Complete Step-by-Step Guide
by Wendy Vincent

If you can treat insect bites and burns or relieve a headache using something out of your own garden, I say go for it. This book will introduce people to herbs that have healing powers and show them how to plant and care for them. It includes charts that give growing zones, soil, moisture, light and best growing conditions.