RE - UP FOR FRIENDS

It is time to re-up. For you not familiar with words having origins of vintage 1906, this means “sign up” for another term. In this case, the word applies to 2017 and to Friends of the Library Boone Boone County (FOLBC).

There are several reasons to join or re-up with FOLBC. The number one perquisite is early admission to Friends’ book sales where “members only” have the privilege to peruse and purchase gently used books. Of course, ranking right up there is personal notification of when and where the book sales occur as well as notification of other FOLBC activities.

Then there are the “feel good” reasons to join: Help maintain a strong and vibrant library; Opportunity to help with Friends activities such as book sales; Investment in your community; A book with your name as honoree added to the library collection.

This past year, FOLBC purchased books totaling over $6,000 to add to the collection. We made a $5,000 donation to help repair the elevator. We gave both labor and federal reserve notes for data bases (accessible at home), programs, the Children’s Summer Event, reading at ABC amd Head-Start daycare centers, and delivering books to homebound individuals.

So, we are involved in a lot of activities, and we can surely use your help. Please join us with your membership donation and any labor. We accept anything of value: used automobiles, boats, books, machinery and Federal Reserve Notes.

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

FOR SALE - ORIENTAL CARPET

Friends has a gently used, donated Oriental Carpet (wool rug) which we are offering to members and the public through an auction process.

Opening bid is $100. Bids will be received until 1 p.m. Saturday, April 15, 2017, during our Spring Book Sale.

Or another option is to buy it now for $500.

The rug is on display at the Boone County Library.

We have several images in glorious Technicolor that can be viewed upon request at gcline@ieee.org.

Leave bids at this site or at the Boone County Library.

The 100% wool rug is dominated by reddish and wine colors in a traditional Persian style made in a Belgium company, Louise DePoortere, Soumak pattern, size approximately 8 feet by 11 feet. No moth damage or stains. It is a beautiful rug.
