Spring Book Sale, April 14, 15, and 16

By the Book Sleuths

Do you know the answer to the oldest riddle on record? "What animal in the morning walks upon four feet, at noon upon two, and in the evening upon three?" Look up the answer in this issue of the Bookplate. Or did you know that old bed springs were sometimes used as TV antennas not so long ago? ONE THOUSAND AND ONE RIDDLES and GARDEN SASS; A CATALOG OF ARKANSAS FOLKWAYS are just two of the delightful books being offered in the FOL spring book sale. Thanks to our patrons, hundreds of books have been donated since last fall. Highlighting the sale are a 26 volume leather bound set of THE OLD WEST published by Time-Life and a 12 volume set of Bible Commentaries.

Check the list of books on page three for some of the titles which will be in the display cases March 28. You will find something to match every interest whether it is cooking, gardening, history, politics or relaxing fiction. Books on nature, some collectible classics and crafts round out the list. And for the young at heart we will offer a small selection for children.

We will be calling soon for volunteers to help set up and work at the sale. And, as always, the proceeds will be used to enhance and provide support to the Boone County Library.
