As reported in the last issue of the Bookplate, Friends of the Library has discontinued internet sales of our line of exceptional books. The inventory will be offered to MEMBERS ONLY from 9 AM - 1 PM Thursday morning, September 29, the first day of the fall book sale. Four people will be admitted to our work/storage room for each 20 minute session. A time slip can be secured at the cashier's table as you enter. If you want additional time you may check back at the cashier's table and get another time slot. We encourage you to continue viewing our other offerings in the atrium and bargain room while you wait.

We are offering a 25% discount on these books at this special event. A slip with your name will be put with your selections and taken by a volunteer to the cashier's table and held until you are ready to check out. Following the fall sale we will continue to make these books available by periodically listing several titles on our website, which is folbc.org; on the Boone County Library website at boonecountylibrary.org; in our newsletter, the Bookplate; and in the monthly library newsletter. We may be contacted at booksellers@folbc.org to arrange for purchases. And we will continue to offer at least two specially selected books on the silent auction stand every two weeks.

Here is a partial list of some of the selections which will be available:

The High and the Mighty, by Ernest K. Gann

The Ugly American, by Eugene Burdick and William Lederer

Dune, by Frank Herbert

That Devil Forrest, by John A. Wyeth

Brownings Complete Poems

On the Court House Square in Arkansas, by John Purifoy Gill and Marjem Jackson Gill

Concrete Engineering Handbook, by William Salem LaLonde and Milo F. Janes

Art in Depth, by Frank Wachowiak

Harper's Monthly, VOL. XLV

Sailor on the Beach in the Battle of Iwo Jima: A Memoir Of Naval Service In World War II, September 30, 1943 - June 26, 1946, by Lt. USNR Marvin D. Veronee

The Crookedest Railroad in the World: California's Mt. Tamalpais & Muir Woods Railroad, by Ted Wurm and Al Graves

The Story of King Arthur and His Knights, by Howard Pyle

Arkansas Handle on Life: Stories of Our Times of People and Places, by Mannie Schaffer
